

According to the 1993 version of Articles of Association ("AoA") of the Hong Kong Institution of Textile and Apparel Limited, the previous version of eligibility for various memberships (which has already been replaced by the new AoA on 8 July 2017) shall be as follows:-

(a) Honorary Fellow Member

Any persons who have not less than 10 years of textile and apparel experience and who have achieved recognised advancement in science and technology in the textile and apparel or related field. No person shall be eligible for election to Honorary Fellow Membership unless nomination to Honorary Fellow Membership shall be given by 2 Voting Members.

(b) Fellow Member

Any Members who have not less than 10 years of textile and apparel or related working experience and who have made significant contributions to the Institution and/or industries.

(c) Member

Any persons who have not less than 5 years of textile and apparel or related professional experience and who hold Honours degree or equivalent relating to textile and apparel.

(d) Licentiate Member

Any persons who have not less than 5 years of textile and apparel or related working experience and who hold Diploma or equivalent relating to textile and apparel.

(e) Graduate Member

Any persons who are fresh graduates and who hold Honours degree or equivalent relating to textile and apparel.

(f) Student Member

Any present students who are taking degree courses or equivalent in textile and apparel.

(g) Affiliate Member

Any persons who are or have been attendants of courses in textile and apparel or who are working in the textile and apparel industry.

(h) Companion Member

Any persons who are holding responsible positions in textile and apparel industry or commercial field, and who hold any non-textile qualifications.